ART on the Square Announces 2018 Season

Redwood City, Calif. (March 26, 2018) – ART on the Square has announced the dates for its 12th season of bringing fine arts and crafts to Courthouse Square in downtown Redwood City. According to Jodi Paley, Director of Artist Outreach & Communication, "It's our 12th anniversary and we're working hard to make it our best year ever. We can't wait for the public to see the latest work of the many wonderful artists who've done our shows in the past along with artists new to ART on the Square. Mark your calendars with the dates of all our shows." ART on the Square founder and producer Beth Mostovoy adds "we showcase emerging artists alongside the exceptional and talented local artists who have shared this journey with us over the past 12 years. Plus, at each show we highlight art groups and non-profits who use the power of art and creativity to make a difference in in our communities. ART on the Square continues to grow and prosper and is considered an integral part of the downtown summer events in Redwood City."

ART on the Square's summer shows are presented in conjunction with Redwood City's Music on the Square and the PAL (Police Activities League) Music Festival. ART on the Square features original jewelry, photography, painting, glass, metal, wood, fiber art and more, created by local artists with work at prices for every budget. At each Friday evening ART on the Square there will be a drawing for four $25 gift certificates that winners can spend on the artists' work of their choice during the show.

ART on the Square was founded in 2007 by Beth Mostovoy and Marketing and Communications Director Julie Goodenough; Jodi Ziff Paley joined the team in 2016 as the Director of Artist Outreach and Communication. The events are supported by the Redwood City Civic Cultural Commission, the Redwood City Department of Parks, Recreation and Community Services, and the Redwood City Parks and Arts Foundation. ART on the Square offers a diverse array of arts and cultural events broadly accessible to residents and visitors and to serve populations that otherwise lack access to cultural arts programming. Its mission is to bring art to people and people to art.
